7
CHARLES DAVENPORT HOYT #4633

Charles Davenport Hoyt was born Oct. 2, 1804 mar. Nancy Ann Barnum (oldest child of David Barnum and Betsey Hoyt) Sept. 4, 1836; died Sept.13, 1873, buried with his wife in Northfield Cemetery. He was the fifth child of Samuel and Betsey. When about 32 years of age he had an operation for cataract which was said to be too soon, and he lost his sight. He had been assistant postmaster in Stamford and New Haven before he lost his sight. He taught music for twenty years and led a Church choir in Stamford after he became blind. He played the cornet.

He lived on the corner of Broad and Atlantic, as located in Map of Stamford, 1851, and ran a store for some years.

The Map of 1858 shows his house on Franklin st. formerly Northfield St., three doors from North St.

The estate of Nancy Ann his wife who died 1848 was distributed Dec. 1, 1851. It had claims against it for $2078.94. Her property is described as bounded north by Broad, east by Atlantic St., south by Rufus Wardwell, west by B. J. Daskam, and it sold for $1985.70. This was part of the property on which now stands the First Stamford National Bank.

His family Bible, tuning fork and some other relics are now (1938) in the possession of his grand daughter, Mrs. Wm. D. Baird, 29 Hoyt St. Stamford.

The death of his wife Nancy Ann was untimely, July 11, 1848. She died of pneumonia at the age of 36, having been bled according to the custom of the time when she was in already frail health. Born March 5, 1812, she was married Sept. 4, 1836 and lived only twelve years longer.

This was indeed a tragedy as it left a blind man with five children and the youngest was a babe in arms not yet a year old. The ages of the children at the time of Nancy's death are as follows;

John Wm. about 11 years

Olivia C. " 7 "

Eliza M. about 6 "

Harriet E. " 4 "

Nancy B. " 11 mos.
(later Emma H. adopted by Dr. Bourne.)

NANCY ANN HOYT

Some Problems.

Among the brothers of Chas. Davenport Hoyt were three concerning whom some points are as yet incomplete.

1st. Henry Edwin?, b. 1751, living in 1871 in Minnesota or Illinois according to Hoyt Family Book. No definite location found as yet in either state, tho it looks as tho Chicago was the place.

2nd. Capt. Wm Smith Hoyt?, b. about 1800. New facts have been obtained and the records are almost complete. See page 67.

3rd. John Warren Hoyt?, b. Feb. 1806. New facts on page 69 but much remains to be discovered.

On all these names the most complete information to date is to be found in the "Genealogy of Samuel Hoyt" by Rev. John W. Hoyt,

Capt. WILLIAM SMITH HOYT[7].

4632 Capt. Hoyt was born close to 1800. He married Maria Wetmore of New York City. He was on a 17th voyage to England and was drowned near Dover, Eng. The story is mere tradition, but has come down, that he took $16,000 in a row boat with him, in the endeavor to reach shore. The boat was capsized, and the treasure lost, but worse than that, it was claimed that a man from Stamford jumped on his back to save his own life. The date Oct. 28, 1847? is given in the Hoyt book, but Nov. 20, 1846 in administration papers. Fourth child of Samuel.
